

Jane Roberts on Women's Reproductive Rights

Jane Roberts, an internationally-known writer and advocate for United Nations' programs for women's rights and 34 Million Friends of the UN Population Fund, will speak on women's rights, population issues and women's reproductive health.

The non-profit, which promotes the rights of women by encouraging equal access to food, education, and health-care, is a response to President Bush's cutting in 2002 of $34 million dollars earmarked by Congress for the UN Population Fund by asking for 34 million individuals to each send at least a dollar to replace this loss.
