

In 1971, Daniel Ellsberg, a high-level Vietnam War strategist, concludes that the war is based on decades of lies and leaks 7,000 pages of top secret documents to The New York Times, making headlines around the world.

The Most Dangerous Man in America is a riveting story of how one man's profound change of heart created a landmark struggle involving America's newspapers, president and Supreme Court-- a political thriller whose events led directly to Watergate, Nixon's resignation and the end of the Vietnam War.

This film also helps us understand the current quagmire in the Middle East and the crucial role of freedom of the press. By releasing thousands of classified documents and the video, "Collateral Murder," Wikileaks has offered a stark alternative to the sanitized mainstream coverage of the present-day wars. Bradley Manning is today's Daniel Ellsberg, fighting for his life against a government seeking to control public perceptions. Join us for the inspiring story of Daniel Ellsberg and find out how you can help support Bradley Manning today.

UH Maui College
Friday Nov. 18th
Ka Lama 103 - 6:00 pm
Free - Public Welcome