An Evening with Helena Norberg-Hodge

Director of the International Society for Ecology and Culture and author of the highly acclaimed Ancient Futures: Learning from Ladakh

Tuesday, March 1st, 6:30 pm

Maui Community College Science 10A Lecture Hall

Free - Public Welcome

Helena Norberg Hodge is the founder of the International Society for Ecology and Culture (www.isec.org.uk), a non-profit organisation concerned with the protection of both biological and cultural diversity, and education for action: moving beyond single issues to look at the more fundamental influences that shape our lives.

She is also a member of the International Forum on Globalisation (www.ifg.org), an alliance of sixty leading activists, scholars, economists, researchers and writers formed to stimulate new thinking, joint activity and public education in response to economic globalisation.

For her work as Director of the Ladakh Project, Helena Norberg-Hodge shared the 1986 Right Livelihood Award, otherwise known as the 'Alternative Nobel Prize'.
