

A Hiroshima/Nagasaki Remembrance

Lahaina Jodo Mission (12 Ala Moana St.) - Sunday Aug 7th - 5 pm

Preventing Nuclear War from a Nonkilling Perspective

Joam Evans Pim, director of the Center for Global Nonkilling, speaks on how human creativity, plus nonkilling research, education and training is preparing the way for preventing any future nuclear war.

Free - Public Welcome

- 5:00 pm -Maui Taiko and origami crane-making
- 5:30 pm -keynote speaker Joam Pim
-Lei'ohu Ryder
-koto and vocal music
- 6:30 pm -Tea / refreshments at beachside pavilion

Sponsored by the Hiroshima/Nagasaki Commemoration Committee, a coalition of Maui organizations and individuals, Aloha in Action and Maui Peace Action