

THE PLIGHT OF GAZA

HOW U.S. POLICIES ARE CAUSING HARM

An Eyewitness Account

Ann Wright, Army Colonel and State Dept. Diplomat (Ret.)
Friday, January 22, 7:00 p.m., Free Admission
Maui Community College, Ka Lama 103

The people of tiny, densely populated Gaza have been isolated and bombed repeatedly in recent years, with U.S. support. Col. Ann Wright has just returned from Gaza — her fourth trip in the past year — where she took part in a Freedom March with more than 1,300 people from 43 countries to shine the light of international attention on the suffering there. She is a retired army officer and U.S. diplomat who resigned in protest over the war in Iraq. She will also be signing copies of her book, Dissent: Voices of Conscience (Koa Books), at Barnes & Noble in Lahaina Saturday, January 23, at 5:00 p.m.
