Eyewitness account - Fukushima this summer

Keynote speaker: Kay Fukumoto

People who can't go home due to the tsunami and nuclear reactor meltdown were visited by Maui Taiko ambassadors of aloha on their tour in June.

Kay Fukumoto, Maui Taiko president, will give a video / slide talk on current conditions in the Fukushima area.

Also on the free program: Maui Taiko, koto music by Mika Inaba and Koko Walbee, Maui Izanai-Yosakoi dancers and interfaith prayers for peace.

Come between 5:30 and 6:30 pm to make origami cranes. Refreshments will be served to all after the program.

Sponsored by the UH Maui College Peace Club and the Hiroshima/Nagasaki Commemoration Committee, a coalition of Maui organizations and individuals
