

Jerusalem ... The east side story

“The air above Jerusalem is filled with prayers and dreams
Like air above cities with heavy industry
Hard to breathe
From time to time a new shipment of history arrives”
Yehuda Amichai

The documentary takes you on a journey exposing Israel’s policy to gain supremacy over the city and its inhabitants. It also touches on the future of the city. Jerusalem is the key to peace. Without Jerusalem, there is no peace for anyone.

The film, directed by Mohammed Alatar, includes interviews with Palestinian and Israeli leaders, human rights activists and political analysts. Palestinian visitors to Maui who work in East Jerusalem will be present to answer questions in a discussion following the one-hour film.
