“The Corporation,” an exposé of the global power of corporations which are “persons” under the law, yet with no body to incarcerate when they break that law, explores the nature and spectacular rise of the dominant institution of our time.

Footage from pop culture, advertising, TV news, and corporate propaganda illuminates the corporation’s grip on our lives. Taking its legal status as a “person” to its logical conclusion, the film puts the corporation on the psychiatrist’s couch to ask, “What kind of person is it?” Provoking, witty, sweepingly informative, “The Corporation” includes forty interviews with corporate insiders and critics - including Milton Friedman, Noam Chomsky, Naomi Klein and Michael Moore- plus true confessions, case studies and strategies for change.

The film has won many international awards and is based on the book The Corporation: The Pathological Pursuit of Profit and Power by Joel Bakan.
